

Please stand tall against the large corporations that want to resell us television programming on DVD, let us make our own copies of what we want to watch. Criminals that want to make money selling black market copies of this material will not be deterred by this flag, they'll have it broken within the first year it is out, but the end user will suffer.